FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH GUN CRIME

Mario P. LeFlore, 30, of Madison, Wis., is charged with being a felon in possession of two firearms. The indictment alleges that on March 21, 2007, LeFlore possessed a 12 gauge shotgun and a 30-06 caliber rifle.

If convicted, LeFlore faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation by the Madison Police Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH GUN CRIME

Prentice Kilgore, 24, of Madison, Wis., is charged with being a felon in possession of firearms and ammunition. The indictment alleges that on January 30, 2008, Kilgore possessed a .25 caliber pistol, a .38 caliber revolver, and .38 caliber and .25 caliber ammunition.

If convicted, Kilgore faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation conducted by the Madison Police Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.

MAN CHARGED WITH RE-ENTRY AFTER DEPORTATION; ALSO FACING DRUG CHARGES

Pedro Pacheco-Dominguez, 31, a citizen of Mexico, who was found living in Madison, Wis., is charged with intentionally re-entering the United States after previously being deported. The indictment alleges that he was found in the United States on February 27, 2008. He was indicted on February 20, 2008, on three charges of distributing cocaine in July and November 2007. The trial for that matter is scheduled for May 27, 2008.

If convicted, Pacheco-Dominguez faces a maximum penalty of two years in federal prison on the re-entry count, and 20 years in federal prison on each distribution count. The charges against him are the result of an investigation by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of these cases has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Meredith P. Duchemin.

MAN CHARGED WITH RE-ENTRY AFTER DEPORTATION

Felix Lopez-Hernandez, 22, a citizen of Mexico, who was found living in Sparta, Wis., is charged with intentionally re-entering the United States after previously being deported. The indictment alleges that Lopez-Hernandez was found in the United States on April 10, 2008.

If convicted, Lopez-Hernandez faces a maximum penalty of two years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation conducted by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Daniel P. Graber.

SUPERIOR MAN FACES ADDITIONAL CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGE

Christopher W. Dallum, 35, of Superior, Wis., was charged in a superseding indictment with possession of two hard drives and eight DVDs which contained visual depictions of minors engaging in sexually explicit crime. The superseding indictment alleges that he possessed a Maxtor hard drive on June 1, 2006, and a Seagate Barracuda 80 gigabyte hard drive and the DVDs on December 15, 2006.

An indictment returned on December 5, 2007 charged Dallum with possession of the hard drive and two DVDs, which contained visual depictions of minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct, on December 15, 2006.

If convicted, Dallum faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison on each count. The charges against him are the result of an investigation conducted by the Superior Police Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.

This case has been brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, the U.S. Department of Justice created Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the U.S. Attorneys' Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims.
